

Exhibitor's Guide- Tokyo Toy Show 2023

For Foreign Exhibitors

October, 2022

Message for the Tokyo Toy Show 2023

We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support of the activities of the Japan Toy Association.

We are pleased to enclose an “Exhibitor’s Guide” where you can find all of the details you will need for the Tokyo Toy Show 2023.

Due to the spread of the new coronavirus infections, the JTA made the tough decision to cancel the Tokyo Toy Show for two consecutive years, in 2020 and 2021.

In June, 2022, fortunately, the JTA managed to hold “the Tokyo Toy Show 2022”, although in a limited capacity. For the first time in three years, we were able to welcome many business visitors who have been eagerly waiting for the resumption of the trade show.

Many exhibited products were featured in the media, and exhibitors voiced their enthusiasm over this achievement.

Based on the success of this year, we will make every effort to further expand and enhance the 2023 show, by realizing a full set of "the Trade show" and "the Open to the public event."

We are convinced that the Tokyo Toy Show 2023 will provide you with an effective and unique opportunity for business negotiations for upcoming summer vacation sales, and introducing new products for the year-end sales season.

Please read the enclosed “Exhibitor’s Guide” for more information about the show.

We look forward to receiving your reply for advanced booking of your space in the Tokyo Toy Show 2023.

Yours Sincerely,

Michihiro Maeda, Chairman
The Japan Toy Association

Masanobu Todokoro, Chairman
Committee of the Tokyo Toy Show,
The Japan Toy Association

It costs ¥8,800 (tax included) up to 1kw of applied electric power, then it is calculated by adding the amount of ¥4,400 (tax included) multiplied by every added 0.5 kw.

②Rates for electricity usage

The rates are calculated by multiplying ¥2,200 (tax included) by 1 kw based on electric energy during the show.

*Note: Consumption tax 10%

Approval from a local health department:

Any sampling of food and drink at the venue may be required to get approval in advance from the local health department by a designated form.

Application and Registration:

1) Application for exhibition

Please fill in the attached application form completely without leaving unfilled columns and send it to the Secretariat of The Japan Toy Association before the application deadline.

Application by telephone, FAX or verbal application will not be accepted.

2) Acceptance of exhibition and billing for exhibition fee

The Japan Toy Association will send an acknowledgment of application registration and an invoice to exhibitors who meet the conditions contained in this guide.

Payment of Exhibition Fee and Other Charges:

The exhibitors will be requested to pay the exhibition fee and other charges in full based on the invoice issued by the Secretariat of The Japan Toy Association.

For foreign exhibitors, only bank transfer is admitted. Any other payment method such as credit card is not admitted. (Receipt will not be issued to the payment by bank transfer.)

Changes After Application:

1) Procedures

Cancellation of application for exhibition and reduction in supplied floor footprint for the exhibitor's own reasons should be notified by mail or by FAX.

Such cancellation or reduction in floor footprint will become valid when received by the Secretariat of the Association.

2) Cancellation charge

A cancellation charge will be invoiced in case of a cancellation or reduction of floor footprint. The following rate will be applied;

By November 25 (Fri.), 2022

Full amount of application fee and 50% of exhibition fee

After November 26 (Sat.), 2022

Full amount of application fee and exhibition fee

3) Nonperformance of Procedures

In the event an exhibitor fails to comply with 1) and 2) above, the Association will cancel the exhibition contract and will not accept applications of the exhibitor for subsequent shows.

No fees and charges paid by the exhibitor will be refunded.

Inability to Exhibit:

In case an exhibitor who has completed exhibition procedures fails to complete the decoration and display before the specified date and time, the Japan Toy Association will manage the booth instead.

The paid exhibition fee and other fees and charges will not be refunded.

The Japan Toy Association will not compensate for damage to the exhibitor caused through this cancellation or reduction in floor footprint.

Prohibition of Subleasing of Booth:

Subleasing of all or part of an allocated booth to a third party by an exhibitor or exchanging allocated booths between exhibitors is prohibited regardless of whether subleasing or exchange is for a consideration or gratis.

Display of Foreign-Made Goods:

When displaying foreign-made goods or using them for decoration purposes, please display them after clearing them through customs and converting them into domestic cargo on the exhibitor's side. (The show ground will not be bonded.)

Management of Booth and Storage of Exhibition Products:

1) During the Show, the Japan Toy Association will post personnel to manage the show facilities in good order.

The exhibitors are responsible for managing their booths.

2) Exhibitors must station personnel at their booths at all times to attend to visitors. Exhibitors are fully responsible for ensuring the safety of visitors and for managing their exhibition products.

3) The Japan Toy Association is not responsible for theft or loss of exhibition products in the booths or for accidents caused by a force majeure beyond its control.

Exhibitors are recommended to insure their products against loss or damage.

Limitations on Decorations Inside Booth:

The following decorations in the booths are prohibited.

If prohibited decorations are found, the exhibitors will be asked to remove them.

- 1) Decorations that are detrimental to the dignity of the venue as a whole.
- 2) Displays that offend against public order and decency or that defame and slander other parties.
- 3) Decorations that do not conform to the height limitation specified in the exhibitor's guide and to other conditions set by the Japan Toy Association.
- 4) Decorations that do not conform to the restrictions imposed by the fair ground.
- 5) Decorations that do not conform to laws and regulations.

Violation of an Intellectual Property Right:

When the Japan Toy Association receives complaints that exhibited products infringe someone else's intellectual property rights and, on examination, determines that the fact of infringement is highly probable, it is entitled to pull the suspected product or promotional item from the booth.

The above complaints shall be based on (1) patent, utility model, design right or trademark which are duly registered in the exhibitors' own name and remain effective in Japan, and (2) copyrights for which an author, the time of creation and constitution of intellectual creations of a work are evident.

The complainer shall provide relevant documentary evidence of intellectual property right such as a copy of valid certificate of registration, or utility model technical opinions issued by Japan Patent Office.

Cancellation of Show:

Should the Japan Toy Association be prevented from holding the Show due to a calamity, fire or other force majeure beyond its control, the Association will refund the exhibitors amounts that are remaining after deducting necessary expenses. The Japan Toy Association is not responsible for damage to the exhibitors caused by cancellation.

Violation of Exhibition Regulation:

- 1) Should an exhibitor violate the conditions set in this guide or new rules to be established in the future, the Association will forthwith ask the contravening exhibitor to comply. Any expense to the exhibitor as a result of this request shall be paid by the exhibitor.
- 2) In the event an exhibitor refuses to correct the situation, the Japan Toy Association will forthwith cancel the exhibition contract and will ask the exhibitor to remove the products and decorations belonging to the exhibitor from the show site. All expenses incurred as a result of this shall be paid solely by the exhibitor. The Association will not refund the exhibition fee and other fees and charges already paid by the exhibitor.

Change in Exhibition Regulation:

- 1) The conditions contained in this guide were decided at a board meeting of the Association held on October 4, 2022.
- 2) Any new situation not taken up in this guide shall be studied, discussed and decided on each occasion at a board of directors meeting of the Association.
- 3) The conditions contained in this guide are subject to changes in the future. The exhibitors will be notified by the Association each time a change is made.

Language and Currency of Show:

The official language in operating the Show will be Japanese and expenses will be settled in Japanese currency.

Payment of Expenses: Please pay the exhibition fee and other fees and charges in Japanese currency to the following bank account of the Association on or before the date specified by the Association.

Every bank charges (either local or recipients) for transfer of fund shall be for the senders' (exhibitors') account.

The Association will not issue receipts for transfers of fund to its bank account.

Ordinary Bank Account No. 0620447 of The Japan Toy Association at Oshiage Branch of The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi, Ltd.

Confirmation of Exhibition Conditions:

The exhibition applicants are requested to read this guide carefully and observe the conditions for exhibition when applying for booth/s.
